

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

TECHNICAL SERVICES UNIT MAPPING/GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEM UNIT

COASTAL PROGRAM ANALYST I OR II

FULL-TIME — SAN FRANCISCO

[LIMITED TERM POSITION(S) WITH POTENTIAL AS A PERMANENT POSITION(S)]

The California Coastal Commission's planning and regulatory activities affect a jurisdiction that includes offshore waters, islands, well over a thousand miles of shoreline, and inland areas all along the California coast. The Commission reviews a wide range of offshore and onshore development proposals for consistency with the California Coastal Act.

A team of staff members (the Mapping/Geographic Information System (GIS) Unit) performs complex technical and analytical work necessary for the map production and geographic analysis required by the Commission. The team develops recommendations to the Coastal Commission on jurisdictional boundary changes, other mapping and GIS-related matters, and carries out research and studies on mapping and geographic information system policy issues. The Mapping and GIS Unit also has the responsibility to carry out the development of an integrated Coastal Zone GIS and Resource Information Center under the California Coastal Act of 1976.

We are searching for an individual(s) to join the Mapping/GIS Unit to work on a wide variety of mapping and GIS-related planning, regulatory, and development tasks.

Knowledge of mapping and cartographic techniques, GIS, aerial photography, remote sensing, and coastal zone geography is essential. Familiarity with coastal and ocean resource, hazard, and development issues, and the Coastal Act is highly desirable. Persons with the following education and/or work experience are preferred for the position: background in geography, mapping, GIS, surveying, marine science, environmental or ocean planning, environmental science, engineering, or related fields.

The successful candidate will demonstrate strong analytical skills and the ability to research and interpret complex coastal resource and geographic information issues. Strong communication skills and the ability to work as a team member are critical.

ELIGIBILITY: Current state employees or former state employees with transfer or reinstatement rights at the CPA I or CPA II levels or comparable classifications. Eligibles on the CPA I, CPA II lists are also encouraged to apply. The position is currently considered limited term until at least July 1, 2007. Depending on the Commission's budget the position may be made permanent. SROA candidates will be considered. Applicants must clearly indicate the basis of their eligibility, including SROA, surplus, transfer, re-employment status, or list eligibility in Box #1 on the State Application.

SALARY: CPA I $2,902 – $4,363 per month
CPA II $4,316 – $5,247 per month
